Collection of Excise Duty

2199. SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA:
SHRI SUSHILKUMAR SAMBHAJIRAO SHINDE:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the estimated total revenue per annum collected from the excise duty levied on normal weight concrete building blocks (vide sub-head 6807.00 chapter 68) indicating the revenue earned during the last three years; and

(b) whether Government, on representation from Members of Parliament and Housing Industry, have been considering withdrawal of this levy in view of the low revenue yield from this item and the fact concrete light weight blocks (solid and hollow) are already exempt from the levy of excise?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI M.V. CHANDRASHEKHAR MURTHY): (a) Informaltion in respect of excise duty levied on normal weight concrete building blocks is not separatly maintained. Information is available only for entire sub- heading No. 6807.00 which includes a large number of goods including concrete building blocks. Total revenue realised from sub-heading No. 6807.00 for 1992-93 and 1993-94 is provisionally placed at Rs. 89 and 129 crores. Information for 1994-95 is not yet available.

(b) Government have received representation for exempting normal weight concrete building blocks. it has not, however, been found possible to exempt such products from excise duty. Small scale exemption is, anyway, available to such concrete building blocks.
